8

Musical staff with treble clef and a '8' above it. The staff contains six measures of music. Below the staff are six vertical fingering diagrams, each corresponding to a measure. Each diagram shows a vertical column of seven finger positions (thumb to pinky). Filled circles indicate fingers to be pressed down, and open circles indicate fingers to be lifted. The diagrams are separated by vertical dashed lines. The first diagram has all fingers down. The second has the thumb down and the index finger up. The third has the thumb down and the index finger up, with a circled '1' below it. The fourth has the thumb down and the index finger up, with a circled '2' below it. The fifth has the thumb down and the index finger up. The sixth has the thumb down and the index finger up.
